

Chemung Canal Trust Company

Building relationships since 1833

For Immediate Release:

March 1, 2010

Contact:

Michael J. Wayne
Senior Vice President
(607) 737-3762

mwayne@chemungcanal.com

CCTC Announces Officer Promotions

Chemung Canal Trust Company (CCTC) today announced the recent promotion of Nancy J. Battersby, Deborah A. Cram and Michael S. Lares.

Battersby, a native of Big Flats, has been promoted to Vice President in the Bank's Trust & Estate Administration Department. Mrs. Battersby joined Chemung Canal Trust Company in 1973 and has served in a variety of positions within the Bank over the past 37 years. She serves on the Board of Directors of Woodbrook, Inc. and has volunteered for Holy Family Catholic Schools, the American Red Cross and is a former member of the board and education committee of the American Institute of Banking. Prior to this promotion Mrs. Battersby was an Assistant Vice President in Chemung Canal's Trust Department.

Cram, who joined Chemung Canal in December 2007 as a Branch Manager, was promoted to Assistant Vice President, and continues in her role as manager of the bank's Southport branch office. Mrs. Cram, a native of Philadelphia, is a Board Member of Chemung County Habitat for Humanity and volunteers for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and "A Voice for the Animals," a local animal rescue organization.

Also promoted to Vice President was Michael S. Lares who joined Chemung Canal's Trust Investment Services Department in January 2004. A native of Elmira, Lares is a graduate of Corning Community College, SUNY Oneonta and earned an MBA in Finance from St. John's University. Lares serves as Trustee and Treasurer of the Chemung County Historical Society, is a Board member of the Mark Twain Little League and a Finance Committee member for St. Mary's Church. Prior to his promotion Mr. Lares was an Assistant Vice President at Chemung Canal.